A PUBLICATION OF NORTH CAROLINA SWIMMING

ISSUE SIX. FRIDAY, AUG 3, 2018.

HIGHLIGHTS ON HIGHLIGHTER DAY

Thursday marked the halfway point of the Southern Zone Meet. All athletes focused on getting needed rest between prelims and finals while the coaches focused on providing the motivation needed for peak performance. Throughout each session it's been standing room only as the coaches, team managers and chaperones encourage each athlete to achieve maximum output. Beginning with the morning backstroke events, the deck has been electric. Multiple grocery runs, medical trips, automotive repair runs, and shuttle trips from hotel to pool to hotel have shown that our NCS operation has become a well-oiled machine. Our caterer has taken great care to meet the nutritional needs of our swimmers. Whatever the cause, the NCS athletes, adorned in hot pink tank tops, rallied on "Highlighter Day" to pull the team back ahead of Southeastern. The team had five individual first place finishes including a new pool record for Lily Welsh (12) in the 50m Backstroke. The 11-12 Boys continued to amaze with another relay win in the 400m Free Relay where all four boys swam sub-1:00 splits. Andrew Li won the 11-12 50m Back as did 11year old Evan Wilkerson who continues to improve in nearly every race he swims! Evan's sister Olivia, who like her brother is visually impaired, won the 13-14 Girls 100m Free event. Last but not least, Bethany Tart won the 15-18 Girls 100m Free with a 58.88 swim.

Following finals at our team meeting back at the hotel, Emily Knorr was recognized for her tough as nails performances with our Goldfish Award. Andrew Li (12) and Lily Welsh (12) won the Fiesta Towel Awards after both took victories in the 50m Backstroke events.
