

2023 NCS Senior Championships Meet Guide

All,

ATOM is looking forward to hosting you for the 2023 NCS SC Senior Championship meet February 23-26 at MCAC in Charlotte, NC.

As many of you are aware, seating is limited at MCAC and our first priority is to provide the best meet opportunity possible for swimmers, while also allowing their families to support them. This year the meet has about 700 swimmers entered, which is almost double the size of last year's meet. When we originally set the meet guide, we based the guidelines on last year's entry numbers. Unfortunately with this increase in size, we are forced to change the meet guide for spectators.

There will be no spectators during Friday, Saturday, & Sunday prelims. There are no spectator limits for Thursday evening and all finals sessions.

During finals, spectators will only be allowed to sit in the bleachers on the lobby side of the pool. Spectators are expected to remain in the bleachers when watching races. There is no space on the pool deck for them to be standing along the side of the pool. These areas are reserved for officials, coaches, volunteers, and athletes.

Athletes, coaches & officials will enter through the far right side door that leads to the locker room hallway. Volunteers and spectators will enter through the main lobby entrance. We welcome parent volunteers. Parents can sign up to volunteer using the link below.

Concessions will be provided by CREAM coffee on Friday, Saturday, & Sunday morning and by Q's Culinary Cart on Friday, Saturday, & Sunday evening from 4-8pm. There will be no concessions on Thursday.

We look forward to a fast, fun meet!
